PERMITTING ADMISSIONS TO B.H.M.S. COURSE
KOLUR BASAVANAGOUD

Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there is any proposal to prohibit admission to B.H.M.S. course in Government College of Homoeopathy, Bangalore during the year 2001-2002;

(b) if so, whether the Central Council of Homoeopathy has issued any notice pointing out deficiencies and lack of infrastructural facilities;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) the decision taken by the Union Government in this regard?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (DR. C.P. THAKUR)

(a): No, Sir. The Central Council of Homoeopathy have allowed the college to make admission in 1st Year B.H.M.S. degree course for 2001-2002, subject, however, to certain conditions.

(b)&(c): The Central Council of Homoeopathy has asked the college authorities to shift to their own building, fill up vacant teaching posts and augment infra-structures etc. within the stipulated time. The council will be re-inspecting the college by March, 2002 for reviewing the matter.

(d): The Central Council of Homoeopathy is statutorily responsible for ensuring observance of minimum standards.The Central Government has no role at this stage.
